

Minister of Internal Affairs was in shida Kartli and Met with the Population of the Village of Khurvaleti

30 March 2019

Giorgi Gakharia,-Vice Prime-Minister of Georgia, Minister of Internal Affairs together with his deputed and Giorgi Khojewanishvili,-the State Representative in Shida Kartli, was in the village of Khurvaleti which is located at the occupation line. He met with the locals and talked about the existing challenges of safety. The Minister personally listened to the information from some villagers about the up to-date situation at the village.

Giorgi Gakharia also talked the Vanishvilis' family members who are living in Akhali Kurvaleti, beyond the occupation line. 86 years old Data Vanishvili talked to the visitors about those difficulties which his wife and he have to come across from the occupants side every day.