

74 Years Have Passed since the Second World War

09 May 2019

Giorgi Khojevanishvili,-the State Representative in Shida Kartli congratulated the veterans of the war on victory over Fascism.” 74 years have passed since the day of victory over Fascism today, I would like to congratulate this day especially to our veterans of the Second World War with a great respect. They greatly contributed to us. Also I want to pay tribute to each of our compatriots, to our heroes who devotedly fought in the Second World War,”-noted the State Representative.

The Second World War ended May 8, in 1945 after declaring of capitulation by Germany . The 9th of May was declared as the Victory Day over Fascism. Georgia lost about 300 000 soldiers in the Second World War.
