

Special State Protection Service of Georgia was complemented by 120 recruits

15 May 2019

Recruits symbolically made their oath at Shindisi Heroes' Memorial. The activity was attended by the State Representative of Shida Kartli,-Giorgi Khojevanishvili, who decorated the Memorial with a wreath together with Anzor Chubinidze,-Head of Special State Protection Service of Georgia and the guests and congratulated the recruits on making their oath. The recruits will have been under contract with Special State Protection Service of Georgia for a year since today.