

Discussion on Surami Urban Development Plans was Held at Surami Public School # 2

16 December 2019

Mzia Giorgobiani,-Deputy of the Minister of Infrastructure, Shida Kartli State Representative,-Giorgi Khojevanishvili and the officials of the local government together with the locals attended the meeting.

Priorities of the development plans include the revitalization of the function of the children's resort, the reasonable use of natural conditions and mineral water, the complex arrangement of the administrative-public center, Improvement of architectural-aesthetic appearance, reduction of the risk of chaotic construction works, analysis of the current situation and opportunities of the Jewish district and synagogue, reconstruction of Surami railway station, the so called Brownfield- defining the perspective of existing and abandoned industrial sites.

Working on constructing of towns plans will be completed until the end of the next year.