

The Families Living at the Occupation Line were Gifted with the New Year Presents

13 January 2020

Soso Ramishvili,-Head of the Investigative Department at the Ministry of Finance and Giorgi Khojevanishvili,-Shida Kartli State-representative, congratulated the New Year and gave the presents, furniture, clothes and household items to the socially vulnerable and large families living at the villages of Gugutiaant Kari, Zardiaantkari and Koshka located at the occupation line.

„Public institutions often collaborate and implement social projects together. Now we have been to the villages at the occupation line and congratulated on coming New Year to the families there. Apart from state programs and plans, our significant social responsibility is important,“-said Giorgi Khojevanishvili.