

“World Book Reading Day” was Celebrated in Gori

06 February 2020

Iakob Gogebashvili's House-Museum in Variani hosted “World Book Reading Day”. The Children of Gori Municipality Agency for Culture and Tourism Development Promotion, members of the Artistic Reading Circle read Iakob Gogebashvili's Work - "What did Iavna Do ?!" and also arranged a small performance which was staged by the director and actor Anzor Gvadzabia. The pupils of Variani Public School and the representatives of the local self-government attended the event.

„World Book Reading Day” is celebrated in more than 100 countries of the world, In Georgia, this day has been celebrated for the fifth time.