

The Red Cross Society provided food parcels to the beneficiaries of Shida Kartli region

05 May 2020

The Georgian Red Cross Society has delivered 400 food and hygiene parcels to the Shida Kartli region for single elderly people and large families. Shida Kartli State Representative Giorgi Khojevanishvili and Natia Loladze, - President of the Georgian Red Cross Society took part in the process of distributing the parcels. Also, in order to prevent the spread of coronavirus, the Shida Kartli Representative Administration and the Red Cross are organizing a rally in the food markets in Gori, which will allow the population to join the campaign and contribute to helping their fellow citizens. In particular, anyone can buy the products that the Red Cross volunteers will recommend on the spot. In supermarket chains, customers will see the "Red Cross" corner, where they will be able to leave the product. The collected products will be packaged with the help of volunteers and will be given to the target families.

With the cooperation of 39 branches and local self-governments of the Georgian Red Cross Society, more than 42,000 primary needs parcels have already been distributed throughout the country.
