

Families living along the occupation line were given baskets of food and hygiene items

23 May 2020

The State Minister Ketevan Tsikhelashvili and Shida Kartli State Representative Giorgi Khojevanishvili visited the families of dependent children in the village of Mejvriskhevi. 402 families with socially vulnerable children from Gori, Kartli, Kaspi and Khashuri municipalities along the occupation line were given baskets of food and hygiene items.

The event was implemented by the financial support of the company “Duty Free Georgia”. Omer Saluri, -Director of the company also attended the event. Ketavan Tsikhelashvili and Giorgi Khojevanishvili listened to the needs and requirements of the population and provided information about the measures taken and planned by the Georgian government to prevent COVID-19.