

Environmental Supervision Department opened a new center in Gori

24 June 2016

A new East-Central management office of Shida Kartli Environmental Supervision Department was opened by Minister of Environment and Natural Resources of Georgia, Gigla Agulashvili, the active Governor of Shida Kartli, Ioseb Okromelidze and Governors of municipalities.

There will be located Inspectors and fast reaction groups in the new management office of Shida Kartli Department, the city of Gori. In addition, there will be National Wood Agency too. Indeed, it gives the opportunity to conduct joint prevention activities. There will be all the services available for the citizens. The building is equipped with every necessary inventories and techniques.