

The government representatives laid a wreath at the memorial of perished heroes fallen during the August War

11 August 2016

The government representatives laid a wreath at the memorial of perished heroes fallen during the August War.

The active governor of Shida Kartli said that "every citizen have to respect perished soldiers of the august war. Shindisi Heroes scarified their selves to protect the national land. It is our obligation to immortalize their names."

During the whole day central and local government representatives adorned the memorial of the heroes.