

Minister of Regional Development and Infrastructure of Georgia attended the Medical center construction process in Tkviavi

30 December 2016

Emergency medical center is being built in village Tkviavi Gori Municipality. Minister of Regional Development and Infrastructure of Georgia Zurab Alavidze, Acting Governor of Shida Kartli Ioseb Okromelidze together with executive director of municipality development fund observed the final works. Tkviavi Emergency medical care center will serve fourteen patients at the same time. For getting the emergency medical assistance Residents of Tkviavi and nearby villages used to go to the centre of municipality. For time being, the main construction works have been completed. The project was financed by the state budget with 1 600 000 GEL and will be finished in the beginning of 2017 year.