

The first field consulting council meeting was held in Khashuri

19 February 2018

The first field consulting council meeting was held in Khashuri, where municipality mayors and heads of local assembly with members of Administration of Shida Kartli government discussed about projects which were realized by municipal development fund of Georgia.